Grès porcellanato che unisce l'estetica della terracotta a quella del cemento, con le morbide sfumature dei pavimenti disegnati dal tempo. La gamma dei cinque colori, in precisa grafica digitale, si muove dal cemento chiaro, al cotto, fino al nero verniciato e si adatta a stili d'arredo classici e contemporanei.

Porcelain stoneware combining the look of terracotta with the look of cement, with the soft stippling of floors achieved by the passing of time.

The range of five colours, in precise digital graphics, varies from pale cement and terracotta to varnished black, and blends in with either classic or more contemporary interiors.
